

New Building Regulations

The Government is introducing new building regulations requirements in June 2022 as follows:

New Dwellings full plan and building notice submissions after 15th June 2022 or previously submitted and not started by 15th June 2023.

Approved Document Part F ventilation requirements revised.

Approved Document Part L conservation of fuel and power requirements revised.

Approved Document Part O New requirements considering overheating.

Approved Document Part S New requirements requiring electric car charging Points.

Extensions and Alteration full plan and building notice submissions after 15th June 2022 or previously submitted and not started by 15th June 2023

Approved Document Part F ventilation requirements revised (including replacement windows).

Approved Document Part L conservation of fuel and power requirements revised (including new u values).

For more information, visit Gov.uk